

Angora Violence

The image features the words "Angora Violence" written in a highly decorative, black cursive script. The text is set against a plain white background. A prominent, long, sweeping horizontal line arches over the top of the letters, starting from the left and ending on the right. Several red, blood-like drips are positioned at various points along the script, including the bottom of the 'A', the 'V', the 'l', and the end of the 'ce'.
